This month, Ibah Nana is our employee of the month. Ibah works as a vital part of our care staff. She is very pleasant, she is caring, she follows through to make sure her job is complete, and she is very thorough with her work. Ibah moved her from Togo, West Africa, last year. She loves to read just about anything, to fill her mind with knowledge. Ibah would describe herself as introverted, and her favorite food is macaroni and cheese. Star for Safety

In an elevator, the button for the floor with the nearest exit is usually marked with a star. Keep this in mind when you're riding an elevator in an unfamiliar place, such as a parking garage, hotel or shopping center.

Memorable Melody: 'Celebrate Me Home'

Homesick during the holiday season, Kenny Loggins penned this sentimental song for his solo debut album, released in 1977, following years of success as one half of a duo with Jim Messina. The words "celebrate me home" were originally intended as a placeholder, but his producer encouraged him to keep them, even making the phrase the name of the record. The theme of celebrating with family, along with the opening line of "Home for the holidays, I believe I've missed each and every face," made the tune a modern-day seasonal staple.
