Hello From the Executive Director

Being Thankful:

Being thankful means recognizing and acknowledging the goodness in our lives and the sources of that goodness. Being thankful also helps us connect to something larger than ourselves, such as other people, nature or a higher power. (From the Internet)

This Thanksgiving I challenge each of you to notice the good things in our daily lives.

At Harbison Shores we can find goodness through our staff, families and residents.

Wishing each of you a Happy Thanksgiving and blessings in your life.

Elaine M. Till, NHA, CRCA
Executive Director

Fine Feathers

Among the many supplies carried by arts and crafts stores are bags of feathers, occasionally dyed bright colors. Some of these feathers actually come from turkeys! You can recognize a turkey feather by the square tip. Another fun fact: Feathers are formed of keratin, the same as our fingernails!

“Savor the day and be good to yourself, love yourself, and then you can be good to others and be of service to others.”
